Dear Baha:

Thank you very much for the excellent presentation you gave to our Human Resources Professionals Association. As one member told me "This was the best presentation we had all year." Your topic "Help for Information Overload" is very timely. You communicated to us with passion and integrity from your own life experiences.

Personally speaking, I truly enjoyed your speech and found it of great benefit. You provided many thoughts and tips that will make me more effective and hopefully help me control this overloaded life. Based on the written feedback we received I know the majority of our members share this opinion.

As Human Resource professionals we struggle not only with managing our own overloaded lives but how we can improve the effectiveness of the leaders in our organizations. The framework you presented is a very valuable tool towards this goal. I hope many of our members will take it back to our respective corporations.

By the way, many of the participants thought you were an excellent speaker and appreciated the humor you brought to such a difficult subject.

Once again, thank you. I hope we can have you back soon.

Sincerely,

Karen Westaway
